

International Teacher Training Course

By Afar Ibrahimov

Who am I?

- Afar Ibrahimov
- CEO of ITEG
- Managing Director of iTTi-New York, in Azerbaijan
- Award by iTTi-the USA
- Run TTC with the Embassy of US in Azerbaijan
- iTTi TESOL Int'l Trainer
- CELTA, TESOL, CPD, TESOL Trainer certificates holder
- Music Lover
- Future Minister of Education
- @ittibaku + 994 55 757 57 45
- Email: afar@internationaltefltraininginstitute.com

TEACHING LISTENING

WHAT ARE THE AIMS AND OBJECTIVES THIS SESSION

- and / to / skill / listening / review / differences / reading / and / similarities / between / the lesson / the / challenges / To / listening / of / understand
- listening / To / a / lesson / the / teaching / steps / of / review

- To review the similarities and differences between reading and listening skill
- To understand the challenges of a listening lesson
- To review the steps of teaching a listening lesson

OET

Burglar

Does he legally enter the house?
Does he steal things?

Ex-Burglar

s he a burglar now?
s he stealing things 5 years a

Break-into

Does he enter the house legally?
Does he use force?

Valuables

Are they worth a lot of money?
Are they expensive or cheap?

Listen to the dialogue and tell me what is the interview about?

- a. Some difficulties burglars face and the way they can solve these problems
- b. some facts about how burglars break into houses and the things they consider

Answer the following questions:

1. Which are the most common things burglars steal?
2. What factors influence a burglar to choose a house?
3. Why do some burglars prefer it if the owners are at home?
4. How are burglars most likely to get into a house?
5. What is the best room in the house to hide your valuables?

Match the highlighted words to these definitions.

To recognize something or someone

Tools, machines, etc. needed for doing a particular job

Supposed to be true but not necessarily true

Changing a lot so impossible to know

Most people or things

Dollar